COLLEGE

OF THE

Immaculate Conception,

NEW ORLEANS.

FIFTY-FIRST YEAR.

by the Fathers of the Society of Jesus, was founded in December 1847; and in March, 1856, was endowed by the Legislature of the State of Louisiana, with the full powers and privileges of a University.

The plan of studies embraces the Doctrines and Evidences of the Catholic Religion. Logic, Metaphysics, Ethics, Astronomy, Natural Philosophy, Chemistry, Mathematics, Rhetoric, Composition, Elocution, History, Geography, Arithmetic, Penmanship, Book-keeping, Stenography, Type - Writing, the Latin, Greek, English, French, German and Spanish Languages. The arrangement of these studies is as follows:

1.

Post-Graduate Course.

The Post-Graduate Course of Lectures was introduced in the month of November, 1886, and it has since continued with good results.

Sociology, Natural and International Law, Political Economy and General Physics are the subject-matter of the Lectures.

The Annual Course opens on the first Monday of October and closes at the end of April. The general subject-matter will be distributed over several years, so as to vary the treatises of those who may desire to attend for more than one term.

At the termination of the complete Course, such members of the class as have given satisfaction by regular attendance may apply for the Degree of Bachelor of Philosophy, which will be granted on condition that they pass an examination on Theses, to be selected from the matter developed during the Course, and present an original and creditable paper on a given subject.

The Degree of A. M. will be bestowed after one term of Post-Graduate Lectures, faithfully and studiously attended, on those who have previously received the Degree of Λ . B.

Graduates of the College, or of any College of the same grade, students of Law or Medicine, and gentlemen of literary or scientific culture, will be admitted to the above Course.

H.

Classical Course.

The Classical Course, which leads to the Degree of Bachelor of Arts, is designed to impart a thorough, liberal education. In the accomplishment of this purpose, the Ancient Classics hold the first place, because some acquaintance with them is essential to the study of modern literature and to sound scholarship. Besides Latin, Greek and English, it embraces Religious Instruction, Mental and Moral Philosophy, Astronomy and Mathematics, History, Literature, Book-Keeping, and the Natural Sciences. It has been found by long experience that this is the only Course that affords unsurpassed mental discipline, forms a correct taste, and prepares the student to excel in any pursuit, whether professional or commercial.

III.

Commercial Course.

This Course offers the means of acquiring a good English or Commercial education. It embraces Book-Keeping, a thorough study of Arithmetic, Algebra, Grammar, Style, practice in Composition, English, and Religious Instruction. At the end of the Course, a Commercial Certificate is awarded to those who pass a satisfactory examination. Moreover, the Degree of Bachelor of Science will be conferred upon those who successfully devote two extra years to the study of Literature. Philosophy and Natural Sciences.

IV.

Preparatory Department.

This Department comprises the First and Second Preparatory and Class of Rudiments. Its object is to introduce the younger pupils to the study of the first principles of Grammar, chiefly by class-drill; to form them to habits of attention and application, and thus prepare them for one of the regular Courses of Instruction.

Requirements for entering this Department are:

First.—The applicant must know how to read, write and spell creditably.

Second.—He should know Arithmetic as far as Long Division, included.

RELIGIOUS TRAINING.

The College authorities are convinced that, without Religion, there can be no education, in the true sense of the word, that is to say, no complete and harmonious development of the intellect and heart of man. They hold, furthermore, that religious truth, being definite and certain, like any and every other truth, is as susceptible of teaching as the science of language, or the theory of numbers. Hence, the Catechism of Christian Doctrine is a text-book in every class, and lectures on it are given twice a week. In all the classes the day's work begins and ends with prayer. The Catholic Religion alone is taught, but non-Catholics will also be welcome and their religious opinions studiously respected. Catholic students go to Confession the third Saturday of each month, then on the following Sunday, in the Church annexed to the College, hear Mass and receive Holy Communion.

General Regulations.

ADMISSION.

VERY STUDENT who applies for admission must furnish testimonials of good moral character, unless he be personally known to some member of the faculty; and should he come from another institution, he will be required to bring satisfactory evidence of blameless conduct. He is then examined by the Prefect of Studies, and assigned to that class for which his previous attainments have qualified him.

The session is divided into two terms. The first begins on the first Monday in September, the second on the first of February and closes towards the end of June.

LEAVING THE COLLEGE.

Parents who wish to withdraw their sons before the end of the session are respectfully requested to give due notice of their intention to the Vice-President. Many inconveniences will thus be avoided, and order secured. Should any student leave of his own accord, or be withdrawn without such notice, or without giving satisfactory reasons, he will not be readmitted. On leaving, students should take their books, etc., with them, as the College is not responsible for any articles left behind.

EXAMINATIONS.

Two examinations are held every year, one at the end of each term.

PROMOTIONS.

Though promotions may take place any time during the year, whenever warranted by the progress of the student, the usual time is the beginning of the school year. These promotions depend partly on the final examinations, but mainly on the general class standing during the preceding year. A student of ordinary talent, and steady application during the entire session, may be easily promoted, provided he returns promptly when classes are resumed. Should he not be promoted, it is usually a sign that he did not attend regularly during the entire session, or that he did not devote sufficient time daily to home study. Should a student fail in the final examination, he will be offered the privilege of passing a private examination during the vacation, if his yearly average warrants the concession.

COMPETITIONS.

Competitive exercises are given monthly in the various branches, the results being read publicly in the presence of the faculty and students, and the leaders rewarded for their proficiency.

To lend interest to these announcements, as well as to accustom the students to appear in public, the proceedings are varied with declamations, original speeches, vocal and instrumental music.

Testimonials of good conduct and diligence are given regularly to deserving students. Parents should require these evidences of good behavior, and if not forthcoming, take an early opportunity of visiting the Vice-President, to inquire why their sons fail to receive merit cards.

MODERN LANGUAGES.

The study of the French Language is a part of the College Course. The study of German and Spanish is optional and entails no extra charge.

STENOGRAPHY AND TYPE-WRITING.

These branches were introduced in 1896. See p. 23.

Fees and Expenses.

Tuition per month, payable in advance	6	00
Use of Chemicals, etc., per annum	10	00
Classical Diploma	10	00
Commercial Certificate	5	00

N. B.—No deduction is made for any absence less than half a month.

Books and stationery are furnished by the College at current prices.

Special Regulations.

the important duty of home study. Since recitations in the various branches fill up almost all the school hours, it is very difficult to advance, and utterly impossible to Home study. accomplish the work laid out for each year, unless the student devotes at least three hours daily to class study at home. Parents are exhorted to insist on this indispensable duty, and to inform the faculty, should their sons neglect it.

After home study the next duty which should claim the attention of students and the vigilance of parents is punctuality.

Severe illness or absence from the city is, generally speaking, the only excuse admissible for staying away. Whenever parents keep their sons at home, on account of sickness or for any other good reason, they are requested to send a postal card to the Vice-President. Frequent absence so rapidly lowers a student's class standing, that the faculty prefer he should be withdrawn entirely.

Owing, moreover, to the serious inconvenience resulting to professors and students from breaking in on class-hours Attendance by withdrawal before the end of the afternoon the whole day. class, permission to leave College will not be given, unless for reasons deemed imperative by the Vice-President.

If parents do not insist on home study and punctual attendance, they need not be astonished if their sons remain a second year in the same class, or, perhaps, be refused re-admission.

Along with moral and mental training, the faculty lay great stress on the development of the manners of perfect gentlemen, and consider the rules of politeness a very important part of the course of studies. Whatever, therefore, is contrary to good breeding, is out of place in College. Consequently no boisterous conduct or rough play is tolerated on the premises, and silence is strictly enjoined in the class-rooms, and on the corridors or stairways leading thereto. Any ungentlemanty conduct among the students themselves, any disrespect or insubordination to a professor or officer of the College, shall be visited with severe punishment, and even with dismissal should the gravity of the offense require such a penalty.

For faults of ordinary occurrence, such as tardy arrival, failure in exercises or recitations, slight violations of rules; detention after class, or the task of writing or memorizing some lines from an author, is deemed a sufficient penalty.

For faults committed outside of the premises, the officers of the College are by no means responsible, as students cease, then, to be under their jurisdiction; still, should any serious charge be fairly substantiated, the guilty shall be punished according to the gravity of the offense.

Damages to the College property will be repaired at the expense of the offender.

The use of profane language or anything bordering on immorality, will subject the offender to immediate expulsion.

Once a month the marks of all the students are read out Monthly in the classes. These marks are the record of daily lessons, exercises, conduct and monthly competitions. 100 is the maximum. A student receiving over 89, merits a testimonial of the first grade, one receiving from 80 to 89, merits one of the second grade.

A report of these marks is given to every student, that it may be signed at home by his parents or guardian. As Monthly Reports. these reports indicate exactly the student's class standing, the College requests that they be very earefully examined, and afterwards returned to the Professor. No student is allowed to open his report.

The College is open at 8 A. M.; class begins precisely at 9.

A student arriving after the 9 o'clock bell has rung, must report at once to the Vice-President, and cannot enter class without a note from him.

Written excuses for lessons or exercises fall under the same rule as notes for absence: a student not prepared to Written excuses for Lessons. accordingly. Such excuses are to be handed to the Prefect of Studies, who will decide whether, in some special instance, they are to be admitted.

No student, unless for serious reasons, will be allowed to $\frac{\text{take his lunch outside the College limits.}}{\text{are requested not to ask this permission if it can}}$ be possibly avoided.

Thursday is the weekly holiday, but should an extraor-Recreation, dinary holiday fall on Tuesday, Wednesday, or Friday, classes may be continued on Thursday, as usual. Dress. All are expected to be clean and neat in person and apparel.

MENTAL PHILOSOPHY.

DIALECTICS.

Logic; its definition and division.

The nature of simple apprehension; ideas; phantasms.

Judgments, terms and propositions.

Reasoning; Laws of the Syllogism.

Demonstration. Species of demonstrative arguments.

Sophisms.

Method, Science, Definition, Division, Analysis and Synthesis.

CRITICAL LOGIC.

A simple apprehension as such, cannot be false.

The doctrine of Universal Scepticism is absurd.

Descartes' 'System of Methodic Doubt' is self-contradictory.

Immediate analytical judgments can never be false.

A conclusion logically drawn from true premises cannot be false.

Our external senses, acting under proper conditions, are reliable in their sensations of outward objects.

The testimony of human witnesses, under proper conditions, can be relied upon to give perfect certainty.

The ultimate and universal criterion of certainty is the evidence of the objective truth.

ONTOLOGY.

The term 'Being' as applied to God and creatures is analogous.

The internal possibility of things does not depend formally on the power nor on the will of God.

The internal possibility of things depends formally on the intellect and fundamentally on the essence of God.

All action is directed to some end or purpose.

It is not impossible for God to maintain some accidents separated from the substances in which they must naturally inhere.

COSMOLOGY.

Pantheism and Agnosticism are systems destructive of all religion, morality and human society.

The world was created.

The world is not absolutely but relatively perfect.

The ultimate or primary end of the world is God's extrinsic glory.

Miracles are possible to God and knowable to man.

There are in matter two substantial principles, viz: prime matter and substantial form; the former is the principle of extension, the latter that of specific action.

PSYCHOLOGY.

Brute animals are devoid of intellect or reason.

The human soul is free not only from coercion, but from all necessary action.

The human soul is essentially a simple being.

The human soul is a spiritual substance.

The human soul is immortal.

NATURAL THEOLOGY.

The existence of God can be demonstrated by metaphysical, physical, and moral arguments.

God is infinitely perfect.

There can be only one God.

God is intrinsically immutable.

God knows all things possible, actual and conditional.

God is free in all His external acts.

God is omnipotent.

Every event is directed by God's Providence.

ETHICS.

God is the only object that can make man perfectly happy Man is accountable to God for his free human acts.

Men are obliged to render public worship to God.

Suicide is never allowed.

A lie is intrinsically evil.

Duelling is opposed to the natural law.

The fundamental principles of Communism and Socialism are false.

The education of children belongs by right to parents, and not to the State.

NATURAL PHILOSOPHY.

PHYSICS.

- Equilibrium of liquids. Downward, upward and lateral pressure. Hydrostatic Press. Archimedes' principle. Specific gravity and its determination. Capillarity. Diffusion of liquids.
- 2. Properties of gases. The atmosphere and its pressure. Barometers. Mariotte's Law. Air-pump. Lifting and force pumps.
- Nature and general effects of heat. Ordinary thermometers. Fusion and evaporation. Transmission of heat. Latent and specific heat. Steam and other heat engines.
- 4. Production, propagation and reflection of sound. Modes of vibration. Numerical evaluation of sound. Constitution of sounds.
- Phenomena and laws of electrical action. Accumulation and condensation of electricity. Leyden jar. Plate, Wimshurst and Toepler-Holtz machines. Roentgen Rays.
- Natural and artificial magnets. Properties and laws of magnets. Terrestrial magnetism. Inclination and declination compasses.
- 7. Magneto-electric induction. Ruhmkorff's coil. The Dynamo. Morse's Telegraphy. Wireless telegraphy.

CHEMISTRY.

- Chemical and physical changes. Atoms and molecules: Elements and compounds. Acids, bases and salts.
- 2. The preparation and principal properties of H., O., N., and the elements of the halogen group.
- 3. Laws of definite and multiple proportions. Gravimetric and volumetric computations. Percentage composition,
- 4. Explain the manufacture of HCl, $\mathrm{HNO_3}$, $\mathrm{H_2SO_4}$ and state their uses.
- 5. Forms in which iron occurs in nature. Properties and varieties of iron. Steel. Metallurgy, The alkali metals and their principal compounds, MECHANICS.

- Motion and rest. Kinds of motion. Uniform and varied motion. Acceleration. Composition and resolution of uniform velocities. Composition and resolution of accelerations. Composition of uniform and accelerated motion.
- 2. Mass. Density. Volume. Momentum. Newton's laws of motion. Measurement of force.
- Mechanical work and its measurement. Energy and its forms. Conservation and correlation of energy.
- 4. Centre of gravity of bodies, plane and solid. Application of the principles of the centre of gravity. Equilibrium and stability.
- 5. Principle of work as applied to machines. Simple and compound pendulum. Laws of the pendulum.

ASTRONOMY.

- 1. Problems of practical astronomy: the determination of Latitude, of Time, of Longitude.
- 2. The earth's shape and dimensions. Proofs of its rotation.

 The earth's orbital motion. The motion of the sun among the stars. The seasons.
- 3. The moon's orbital motion. Phases of the moon. The tides. Effect of the tides upon the earth's rotation. The sun's light and heat. Lunar and solar eclipses. Total, annular and partial eclipses.
- 4. The planets. Their apparent and real motions.
- Meteors and Comets. Their causes. The constellations. Nebulae and clusters. Kant-Laplace nebular hypothesis.

ARGUMENT.

SINCE THE death of Llewellyn the Welsh have to bow under the rnthless sway of Sir Roger De Percival, Lord of Conway. Goaded at last to desperation, they make one more effort to shake off the foreign yoke and rise in rebellion. They select as their leader Caswallon, the personal friend of their late king. The patriotism of this chief is well known and his valor tried on many a field of battle. Furthermore, the discovery that young Eric, the supposed child of Caswallon, is in reality Llewellyn's heir, adds new energy to their enthusiasm.

Sir Armyn Fitz-Edward, a favorite of the English king, learns of their projected enterprise from the lips of Sir Roger De Percival. Mindful of his Cambrian birth Fitz-Edward hastens to warn Caswallon that his plans are known to the English Governor, In the interview which follows Caswallon recognizes in the knight his only son long mourned as dead. Despite his father's entreaties Armyn remains steadfast to his sworn allegiance to his English benefactor, resolving however to serve his native land in every way consistent with his fealty to the English king.

Sir Roger De Percival leads on the forces of Conway and routs the insurgents. During the battle Eric and Caswallon fall into the hands of the enemy. De Percival to further his ambitious aims against the English monarch condemns Caswallon to death, but spares Eric's life. Fitz-Edward hears of the condemnation of the captives and in the interview that follows with Lord Conway, learns the treachery of the latter. De Percival, to save himself, arrests Fitz-Edward but the latter escapes to Chester and warns his royal benefactor,

A royal pardon is granted to the prayers of Armyn. He hastens to impart the tidings to his condemned father and arrives in time to save him. Caswallon, however, descends from the scaffold only to clasp in his arms the dying form of young Eric who has been treacherously stabbed by the men-at-arms of De Percival. The Cambrian chief hears the expiring words of the young prince and dies broken-hearted at his side.
